

Grand Jury Seeks State Legal Aid

The San Mateo county grand jury, rebuffed in its attempt to have county supervisors removed from office for "willful misconduct" have again called on the attorney general's office to pursue the probe on county road expenditures.

Tuesday night the jury requested Attorney General Edmund Brown to review removal from office charges against county supervisors for failure to properly supervise some $725,000 in road expenditures by former county engineer M. A. Grant.

The charges were thrown out last month by Superior Judge Aylett Cotton, after District Attorney Keith Sorenson reluctantly attempted to prosecute the case for the grand jury.

At the outset of the inquiry against supervisors, Sorenson had said there was insufficient evidence to show misconduct against the officials. Faced with this attitude from the district attorney, the grand jury turned to the attorney general's office for assistance.

'Lack Of Evidence'
Sorenson later had a change of heart, agreed to prosecute the case for the jury, but unsuccessfully, as a motion to dismiss the accusations against five county supervisors and the county manager was granted by Judge Cotton. While the judge conceded that there was some "carelessness" on the part of supervisors in failing to scrutinize Grant's sizeable road expenditures.

Cotton held there was lack of evidence to uphold the misconduct accusation. With only 1½ months to serve, the grand jury apparently does not intend to let the Grant-supervisors matter drop. Said one member of the inquiry group, "Maybe we feel we didn't get a square deal from the d.a. We aren't saying that, but we're not through with this matter yet."

Still A Case
Jury foreman Ray Higgins has already conferred with one of the attorney general's deputies to determine whether there is still a case against supervisors and Grant. "It's up to the attorney general to enforce the law, even if the district attorney doesn't see fit to do so," commented a spokesman for the jury. "We don't hold with the judge's decision in the case. The district attorney's prosecution was very weak."

The grand jury is inviting the county charter study committee to a joint meeting to discuss proposed charges in the county charter, many of which will be as a result of information unearthed this past year by the grand jury.

During the next six weeks the grand jury will meet every week to prepare its voluminous report on the year's activities. "You'll find a lot of changes in county government as a result of this report," a juror related.

Callan, City Hit Impasse On Apts.

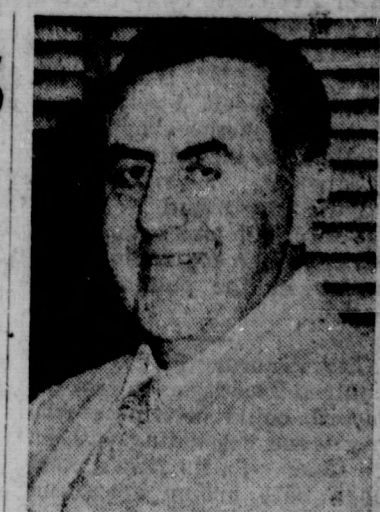

Approval of two variances for the multi-million dollar Caesar-Callan apartment project bogged down Tuesday, as Tom Callan Jr. objected to several clauses in an all-inclusive agreement with the city for providing improvements.

Callan's chief complaint was that a proposed street assessment district was being linked in the agreement with other facilities such as width of streets, setbacks, curbs, sanitary sewers, etc.

Callan maintained that the council should approve variances for reduced setbacks and sub-standard off-street parking entirely independent of the assessment proceedings.

According to the Caesar-Callan spokesman, unless the council approved the variances soon, his firm would not be able to obtain their loan for the $5 and a half million project. He claimed that commitment on the loan expired December 31, 1957 or 1958.

Callan also opposed the agreement because it established the assessments proceedings under the law of 1951, instead of the 1953 act. The former, Callan complained, raises cost of installing streets and storm

HENRY DOELGER, Westlake developer, has been named one of San Mateo county's two representatives to the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission. The other appointee was Frank Barrett, San Mateo builder. Supervisor Thomas Callan recommended Doelger's appointment to the transit body.

Basin Site Will Cost $80,000

The 7½ acres of Westlake Basin land will be purchased by the elementary school district at a cost of $10,779 per acre, according to action taken by trustees Tuesday at a special meeting. Total cost of the property will be approximately $80,000.

The Jefferson Elementary School district trustees approved a motion that they abandon their protest against a liquor license for a Westlake bowling alley and withdraw their request to the county to vacate White street if the Henry Doelger firm would sell the basin land at the $10,779 per acre appraised price.

Other conditions of withdrawing the protest on the liquor license and abandoning request for White street vacation were that Doelger would sell 20 useable acres for the Abraham Lincoln school site and 10 acres for the Portola site at prices not to exceed the district's appraisals.

Tuesday's action appeared to be a give-and-take proposition, since the Doelger firm has asked the board to withdraw their protest against John Swanson's bowling alley liquor license. The builder has also sought to have White street extended from Broadmoor to Westlake, which would have been impossible if

DECEMBER 6 AT WESTMOOR

'Unified' Schools Hearing Here

A public hearing has been scheduled December 6 at Westmoor High school library on the recent proposal to merge the Jefferson High school and Jefferson Elementary school districts under a single authority.

The public hearing, scheduled to start at 8 p.m., has been called by the San Mateo County Committee on School District Organization.

The Citizens' Committee For Better Schools, a Daly City area unit, got the unification ball rolling recently by petitioning the San Mateo County Committee for a survey on the proposed merger. The latter group then authorized the public hearing.

According to James R. Torrey, county superintendent of schools, all testimony given at this public hearing will materially assist the county committee, an official group, in determining whether the proposal has sufficient merit to warrant a full-scale study.

Reorganization of the two Daly City districts would be possible only after certain prescribed public hearings and an election held among all the districts of the high school district, and would result in a single district under one governing board and administration. This single district would cover instruction from kindergarten through the 12th grade.

Council To Urge Removal Of 2nd Westlake 'Hump'

City council decreed Tuesday that builder Henry Doelger should be urged to remove the "hump" on South Mayfair avenue between Lynnwood and Windsor "immediately."

The action came on request of the Westlake Improvement association, which said that the dead-end was unsightly and had brought continuous complaints from homeowners.

The hump, a 15-foot obstruction splitting South Mayfair, has remained untouched because of litigation between the "owners" of the hump right of way, Ocean Shore Railroad, and Daly City and Doelger.

Another similar hump on Southgate avenue was removed after a superior court decision that the long defunct Ocean Shore no longer owned the right of way.

Councilmen claimed Tuesday that the same conditions apply on South Mayfair, and that there is no reason why the hump cannot be removed.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said that if the decision against Ocean Shore, now under appeal, is reversed, the city could restore the hump to its original grade.

Fired DC Inspector Due In Court Again

Dave Johnstone, former Daly City police inspector, will continue his 2½ years of legal maneuvers in the district court of appeal in San Francisco December 17.

Johnstone, fired from his job in May, 1955, for "association with known gamblers" following a series of bookie raids here, has denied the charges since the outsets and has appealed decisions of both the superior and state supreme courts in upholding the city's action.

Representing Johnstone in the case is attorney John Fahey. Johnstone is demanding that he be restored to inspector status and be paid some $15,000 in wages accrued since his dismissal.

City Attorney Paul Huff will represent the city at the December 17 hearing, which starts at 10:30 a.m.

No DC Students 'Customers' Of Dope Peddler

No Daly City high school students were involved with the 21-year-old San Francisco dope peddler arrested by Broadmoor police and county narcotics agents November 5, school officials and the Daly City police department said today.

SPOTLITE THIEF GETS JAIL TERM, MUST PAY $800

Petty theft of coffee and cigarettes from Spotlite market, has resulted in 30 days in county jail and an outlay of $800 for John Reed, 39, former clerk at the store.

Pleading guilty as charged in municipal court Thursday, Reed was sentenced to 90 days in county jail, 60 of which were suspended on condition he make restitution in amount of $500 and pay a $300 fine. He has 10 days to report for the jail term.

Reed, of 4329 25th street, also was placed on two year probation.

'Don't Need SF Land,' Allocation Board Told

A plan to construct the controversial Gen. Pershing school on 6.8 acres of land without utilizing San Francisco property was presented to the state allocations board in Sacramento Tuesday.

Six representatives of City of San Francisco, appearing to protest the Jefferson Element-tary School district's planned acquisition of 3.5 acres of San Francisco land for a school site, came armed with maps and documents to prove that the Daly City district does not need the outside property.

As a result of the "new evidence" introduced by San Francisco, the allocations body postponed their final decision on San Francisco's protest to November 25 at 10 a.m. at the state capital.

The allocations board had said earlier that it would back up the Jefferson district's application for the land unless San Francisco could support its claim that the land was not needed.

The San Francisco plan would limit the Gen. Pershing school to a 6.8 acre plot in Daly City, of which 4.7 acres would be flat, 7 of this to be occupied by the building, the remainder for play area. The bank area would be 2.05 acres.

The San Francisco delegation said today, however, that many features of the San Francisco plan provide for expensive construction methods, such as retaining walls, which would not be approved under the state aid program. The local district must borrow the money to build the school.

On recommendation of the allocations board, Weibel and the San Francisco people will get together to discuss the latter's proposal. The hearing will be renewed on November 25.

involve some 1565 elementary school children here, first through third grades, under the Jefferson school district's efforts to improve reading skills at these levels. Above photo looks into the second grade class of Mrs. Mildred Griswold at General Pershing school on Hanover street. The teacher is working with a small group on reading problems while the rest of the class wait their turn but go ahead with regular studies. By rotating and working with smaller groups, educators and teachers know results will be better. This staggered schedule finds some youngsters going to school from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., the others attending from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

During the first and final hours of the day, each teacher involved concentrates on the small-group reading emphasis. Don Pagani is principal of the old Pershing plant, which trustees hope soon will be relieved of its overcrowded and inadequate status. Approximately 450 youngsters are jammed into the outmoded school. The school district is still negotiating for a 10-acre site for the new Pershing school, not far from the present location.

Long-Term Lease OK For Park

The city council agreed informally Tuesday to grant Jefferson Elementary School district a long-term lease on 6.4 acres of land in the city-owned Westlake park.

Earlier the council had stipulated that it would turn the city land over to the school on a joint use basis, but only for a lease of one year at a time. The land will be used to augment the basin site school.

City Manager Howard Stites said that the turning over of city land for use as a school site was probably unprecedented and that the final proposal would have to be worked out with the state.

Commented Mayor Joseph Verducci, "I think we have demonstrated our good faith by cooperating with the school this way. It will mean a big savings for taxpayers."

Councilman Sanford Vickers said the city "should get state and national recognition" for the transaction.

The formal agreement with the school will be taken up at study session next Wednesday, along with the school's proposal that the city vacate a portion of Hanover street for use as a school site, and the proposed vacation of White street, which has been opposed by the council.

of the suspect, Alfred Remo, were not Daly City students. Morgan checked the report that a Daly City youth tipped off agents on the peddler. But the county probation department informed that they had no such information.

Petrocchi reports that his department would have been notified by narcotics agents if Daly City youths were in any way connected with the peddler. First news of the arrest at the Colonial Drive-In, outside Daly City's boundaries, was that Remo admitted he had been selling in this area, reportedly to Daly City high school students. Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage had said that a 17-year-old local boy had tipped off the district attorney's office that the suspect had offered to sell him marijuana.

A. L. Lamport, county investigator, has refused to divulge to the press whether or not a tipster was involved, the scope of the Remo's sales, or where his customers came from. Lamport hinted that any information might be detrimental to his office in court. Remo was arraigned in municipal court last Thursday. He has been held over to superior court on seven charges of transportation and sale of marijuana.

Mrs. LISETTE MACK, 185 Bellevue, would like to give what she terms "honorable mention" to the police and fire departments, a veterinarian and the city pound.

It took all four agencies to extricate her dog when it got caught in the plumbing recently.

City Attorney PAUL HUFF inquired Tuesday as to how the council could determine who they were negotiating with on the Caesar-Callan firm's plans for a $5 1/2 million apartment project.

Individual land owners involved include: TOM CALLAN SR., TOM CALLAN JR., MICHAEL CALLAN, and Caesar-Callan Co. At least they keep it in the family.

School trustee JOE LEWKOWITZ stomped angrily out of a meeting the other night before the Crocker-Pershing PTA, after other trustees, appearing for a panel discussion, refused to recognize him, says Joe.

Stymied on several tries to answer questions from the audience, Lewkowitz finally gave up the ghost and walked out with the meeting just barely underway.

Spring's Approaching—First Hopeful Bid For City Council
Councilman Sanford Vickers tossed his hat into the ring for the April, 1958 election Tuesday, but it was a subtle throw.

Vickers told fellow councilmen that the city's voting equipment was in disrepair and should be fixed. "All these things should be taken care of before the next election," he said.

He also suggested that the city do away with the black color scheme in the booths. "A lighter color looks more promising," he observed.

sewers because cost of repayment of bonds is computed in the bid price for the contract. Callan also asserted that he did not receive a copy of the agreement until 8:07 o'clock that same evening.

Callan said the agreement had the effect of "tying our hands" since it provided that the city engineer and city attorney would do engineering and legal work for the assessment district.

City Manager Howard Stites pointed out that Callan owned only half the property which would be involved in the assessment proceedings and that therefore it wouldn't be fair to the other owners to have Callan control the engineering and legal work.

Majority of the council contended that if Callan were granted the variances he sought without acceding to the council's demands on street sizes and other improvements, the council would be forced to grant a building permit for the project.

Callan's reply to this was that the council could control street widths, sewers, etc., at the time when maps were submitted to the city for approval.

the district's request for vacation of the street had been approved by the county.

The White street vacation request was withdrawn by the board on the condition that a retaining wall be constructed by Doelger at the southerly end of the extension and that Doelger construct an underpass between Garden Village and Benjamin Franklin school playgrounds. Another stipulation is that the county still abandon those portions of right of way which would not be used for the construction of the road.

area, and the wooden structure known as "Siberia." By authorizing the architect's engineers to get a cost breakdown on the two alternatives—rehabilitation or demolition—trustees hope to have the facts to make a decision in mid-December.

Lost Footage?

Supt. Ed Morgan said he hoped the demolition of the unsafe areas were possible, citing that the state would supply the funds and these would not be charged against the district in future applications for state aid. If demolition and rebuilding were decided, the replaced square footage would be charged against the district.

Under the impractical state formula for space per student, Jefferson's 924 students are assigned to an area of 115,000 square feet, while Westmoor's 1164 population is occupying a total of 147,022 square feet.

By the state formula, Westmoor now has an excess of 39,862 square feet, which awkwardly must be subtracted from state eligibility. If the district is to qualify for future state aid to meet projected four-year enrollments, more students will have to be moved into Westmoor to erase the excess square footage, thus qualifying the district for more aid.

Need Adjustments

Enrollment expectations by 1960 and 1961, when one of the two planned Coast schools is needed, indicate the district's two plants will be seriously overcrowded. Adjustments on Jefferson and Westmoor thus must get started now. Morgan discussed the district's woes with the state division of school planning last week in Sacramento, explaining the enrollment boom and delays on the Sharp Park and Linda Mar plants. State officials will be here later this month to offer additional recommendations and discuss state eligibility.

Morgan asked the board to consider meeting the "inevitable" by partitioning certain areas of Westmoor in order to eventually house some 356 additional students, thus reducing the excess footage and making the district eligible for more funds to use for future enrollments. Areas suggested for classroom are the cafeteria, gym, exercise rooms and the music room.

Bad Formula

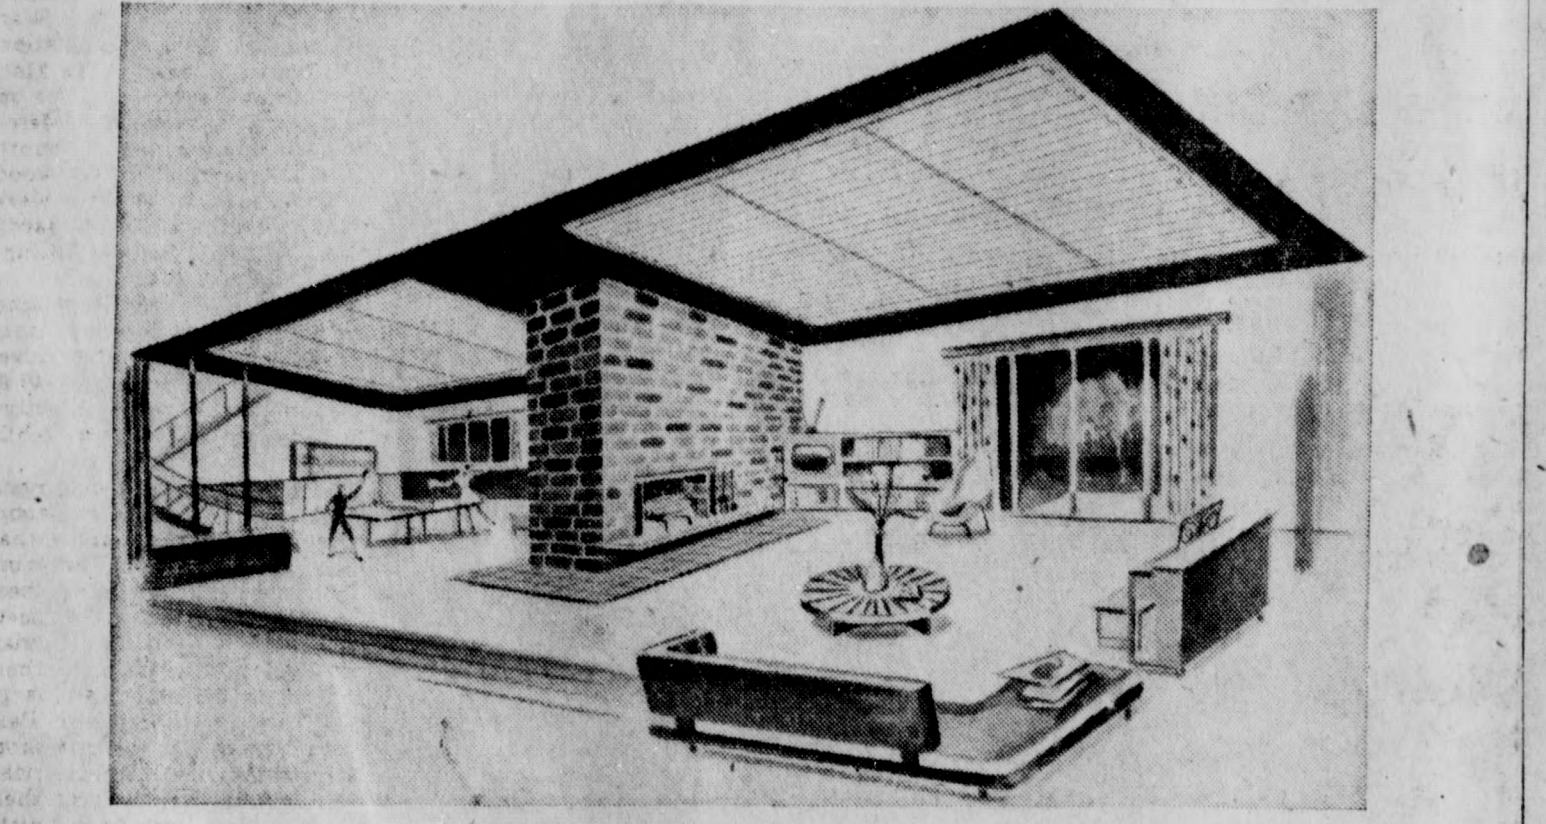

"The state formula on square footage is intolerable," said Morgan, "but we're going to have to make some sacrifices." Trustee Don Miller asked the superintendent and board to contact local legislators to see if new legislation could be introduced to change the square footage law. The board believes that even 100 square feet per student is inadequate.

Facing a delay on the Sharp Park site because the state division of highways won't be able to firm its freeways and rightaway negotiations until next March, trustees went ahead Wednesday by asking for contour maps and surveys of the Linda Mar site area. The Sharp Park plant, intended as the third district high school, may not be ready until 1961, due to the unavoidable delays.

California's 1956 hay crop had an estimated value of $153,495,000.

LIP SERVICE FOR THE LIBRARY

Daly City residents are among the worst-read citizens in the state!

At least so a study released last week would indicate. Figures obtained by the library commission showed Daly City has .52 books per person on its library shelves.

This is about one-sixth the number recommended in American Library Association standards—three books per person.

Daly City's half-book per person is lowest of any Bay Area community and probably lowest in the state.

Right on down the line—book budget, total library budget, and capital outlay—Daly City is woefully lacking when compared with other cities of similar population.

The city does, of course, have access to some 8000 books from the county stacks, under the County Free Library district program in which the city participates.

But even with these books available, Daly City's library facilities are alarmingly inadequate.

The small cubicle that is called the Westlake branch library handles as many or more people as the main Daly City library on Mission street. And the Mission street facility is already overcrowded.

The turnover of volumes at both branches is evidence that Daly City residents are avid readers. But there are just not enough volumes available.

Of all services provided by the city, the library is probably one of the most frequented in number of individuals using the services. And the value received by the library services are exceeded by no other single municipal endeavor.

When budget time arrives, the library has always received short shrift.

Perhaps more joint meetings such as that held last week between council and library commission will serve to jostle city officials into some concrete action for improvement of the library system, instead of merely giving the reading public lip service once every year at budget time.

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I am happy to report that the general meeting of the Friends of the Library, held at the Westmoor High school last Thursday evening, met with a very pleasing public response.

It was most encouraging to see the size of the enthusiastic group which met to hear Dr. Mary Margaret Scobey discuss the importance of the industrial processes in modern day society, and to hear the Westmoor Choral Group sing a few short selections.

Friends of the Library are aware that this public response is in no small measure due to the fine cooperation we have always received from every member of your staff.

I speak for every member of our group when I say thank you.

Outside the St. Francis double line stretches half-way to the block, waiting to see "Pal Joey," a bright, slick musical—a worthy herald of that may very well be the enaissance of a new day in film going.

Like its title character, "Pal Joey" has been around quite a while, so it shouldn't be necessary for us to detail the plot. Inevitably, there are changes. The locale is now San Francisco, an immaterial change. Sinatra is a singer, so Joey is a singer not a dancer, so immaterial, but unfortunately, compromises have been made in his character. If you think there's a little bit of good in everybody, you'll be happy, but if last reel reformations make you snicker, be prepared to snicker.

Lecherous Louise
Joey is a smooth, lecherous use whose charm captivates Linda (Kim Novak), a dancer at a Pacific Avenue dive, and Vera (Simpson) (Rita Hayworth), now extremely social at whose past is best summed up by her show business name—Vera the Stripper.

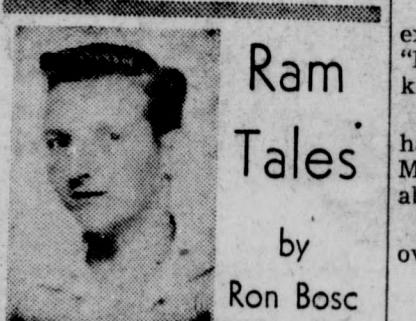

Vera offers Joey a plush club of his own (wait till you see those house Columbia Pictures borrowed for this); but Linda offers him true love. He takes his choice, and it is like putting a marachino cherry in a martini insofar as it is consistent with his established character.

Sinatra makes a terrific Joey. From his early line, the classic, "You have the wrong man," delivered to police getting rid of him aboard a train, to about half-way through the film, he's the insouciant heel as is lived in the secret life of many a timid male. Then he reforms, his characterization falls apart, and he's Sinatra again.

Years Go By
Rita Hayworth has accepted the inevitable that none of us are getting any younger. Now that she has stopped badgering her cameraman for the most flattering angles and has given up worrying about that overhead shot that can erase the marks of the passing of time, what is left is a handsome woman who really comes over to the audience. Just one word, Jean Louis (gowns): She's still not "Mrs. Exeter." That costume in the final scene was much too matronly.

The weak sister is Kim Novak. She has two expressions: she looks to the right and she looks to the left. Oh, yes, she twitches the corner of her mouth, first the right then the left. And that's it. It's not much but that's it. If she would only learn how to breathe, maybe it would help.

Bank Of America Promotes Reilly To San Jose Job

Emmett J. Reilly, 115 Greenwood drive, South San Francisco, former operations officer at Bank of America's Daly City branch, has been named manager of the statewide bank's new office scheduled to open before Christmas in the Foxworthy Shopping Center in the Southern part of San Jose.

The announcement was made in San Francisco today by S. Clark Beise, Bank of America president.

A San Francisco native who has served in the Bay Area throughout his career, Reilly entered the bank in 1935 as a messenger at the head office.

He was a teller at the Excelsior branch in San Francisco when called for World War II Army duty in 1941 and resumed his career there in 1945.

Promoted to junior officer at the Marina branch in 1948, he was advanced to officer in charge of operations at Daly City in 1952 with the title of assistant cashier.

He goes to his first managerial appointment after 16 months advanced executive development training at the main office and branches in San Francisco.

A former March of Dimes chairman for Daly City and Junior Achievement advisory member in San Francisco, Reilly also is active in the South San Francisco Boy Scouts.

He and his wife, Ann Marie, are the parents of three daughters, Joanne Marie, Bonnie Jean and Gayle Teresa, and a son, Bruce Anthony.

Four Teeners Foiled In Stolen Car Here

Four Lowell High school boys were nabbed by Daly City police for auto theft late Friday after their speeding stolen car was forced to the curb on Junipero Serra boulevard at Alemany.

Driver of the "hot" vehicle explained that another youth "let us use the car, but I don't know who he was."

Police learned that the theft had occurred at Hayes and Masonic in San Francisco, about 45 minutes earlier.

The four boys were turned over to SF juvenile officers.

One of San Francisco's most famous landmarks is the giant cross atop Mt. Davidson.

Sloane. Be sure to remember to buy a ticket and attend this production.

Westmoor won the cross-country championship of the Peninsula League last Thursday by stopping San Mateo, Lincoln, Burlingame, South San Francisco, and our rival, Jefferson. Bruce Ryner claimed a first at San Mateo with Dave Dunbar and John Blake, and others who are tops are Phil DeLa Fuente, Ed Dowdall, Jim Gustafson, Mike Young, and Jed Cyr. Also great in the frosh-soph are Jack Kyle and Dick Keeding. Cross-country is where you run about two miles, but not on a track. We're sure proud that Westmoor is the tops in this sport.

The Seniors are starting to plan for their future activities which are the Senior Sneak (picnic), Senior Ball, May 29 (a very formal affair); and graduation, June 11, plus a few others.

City Of Pacifica Is 'Official' Next Week

Installation ceremonies for Pacifica's city council will be held Friday evening, November 22, at Vallemar school, just a few hours after the community's incorporation becomes official.

The county will file a certificate of incorporation with the state on that day.

The installation ceremonies, which will probably be attended by several hundred Pacificans, will be conducted by the North Coastside Community Council, with president Richard Mazzetti doing the honors.

After confirming the selection of Mrs. Jean Fassler as mayor, the new council's first official act will be to adopt all county ordinances to provide the city with a temporary framework on which to govern itself.

A tentative budget to operate for the next seven months of the fiscal year will also be discussed, although the embryo city as yet has no tax rate or an established assessed valuation.

The council will meet again next Tuesday for a "dress rehearsal" of the November 22 installation.

Last week the council informally decided: to retain Louis J. Kreoger & Associates as temporary city manager; hire Harold Blake as temporary city attorney; locate the city hall in a vacant building in Pacifica Manor shopping center, offered rent-free by realtor Alexander Jama; meet the second and fourth Wednesdays of every month.

The new city hall should be available by November 22 but will not be used for the installation rites because of limited space.

County supervisors were scheduled to canvass the ballot yesterday. Only change the count of absentee ballots may have is to determine whether Don Miller or George Mason will receive one of the two-year terms. Mason topped Miller by only two votes in the October 29 election.

The council will meet again next Tuesday for a "dress rehearsal" of the November 22 installation.

Buick Company Gives Westmoor Engine, Block

Brown Buick Company of San Francisco donated a 1957 Buick engine and block to Westmoor High school in Daly City last week, with Ray Ely, co-owner and vice president of the company, and Edward Walther, service superintendent, making presentation. Accepting on behalf of the school was Glenn South, principal, and George Christenson, auto shop instructor.

In addition to the engine and block, Brown Buick presented demonstration charts to the school and also has ordered power steering units for the school for instructional use. Christenson pointed out that this was the first '57 engine for the shop and he felt all 50 students enrolled there would benefit greatly from work on this engine and the power steering units.

Ely commented that he was quite impressed by the physical plant at Westmoor, especially the auto shop with its up-to-date equipment.

He mentioned that there is a great need for body and fender men as well as auto mechanics, and he felt Westmoor's three-year auto shop program plus its physical plant was helping to meet such a need.

Brisbane, Bayshore Dump Sewage In Bay

Two spots on the Peninsula—the Bayshore City Sanitary district and Brisbane—are the only Peninsula areas where raw sewage is being dumped into the bay, according to John B. Harrison, Bay Regional Water Pollution Control board executive.

Harrison spoke before a state hearing in San Francisco Monday.

The Bayshore district and Brisbane dump waste into the body of water formed by the new freeway causeway. Raw industrial wastes are also dumped there, Harrison said.

The state assembly subcommittee hearing is studying water pollution problems in the bay.

Lumber Company Hit By Burglars

Thieves late Monday night staged a $420 burglary at the White Lumber Company, 1917 Junipero Serra boulevard, by breaking into the office shed at the rear of the main building.

Owner Charles White reported missing an electric power saw, a hatchet, and a five-gallon can of gas. Police said the intruders completely ransacked the office and did considerable damage to the cash register.

Holy Angels' Men Plan Association

Holy Angels' male parishioners will seek to organize a men's association when they meet this week to discuss and act on a set of by-laws for the proposed Holy Angels Men's Club.

The ratification meeting, called by Rev. Thomas J. Farrell, pastor, will take place this Wednesday, 8 p.m., in the basement of the rectory. It will climax a series of planning conferences held last month by the pastor and a nine-man organization committee which set down the broad aims of the organization and drew up its by-laws.

Early this week, Father Farrell sent letters to male parishioners inviting them to this week's meeting and soliciting their active participation in the proposed organization.

The Master Plan of the board includes immediate selection of a site for a second campus to be developed for use by 1968. Financing for acquisition of this site is provided in the bonds voted on October 15.

W'moor 'Homemakers' Hold Halloween Tea For Faculty Members

Halloween offered an opportunity for the beginning homemaking class at Westmoor High school to put into practice their menu planning, cooking, and hostess training of the past few weeks as a Halloween Tea given for the faculty.

Traditional colors and theme of the holiday was carried out in both room decoration and food preparation. The table was decorated with fall colors—the focal point being the large jack-o'-lantern carved out by the girls. Orange pyracantha berries massed in the background of the huge pumpkin and brightly burning candles enhanced the autumn loveliness of the buffet table arrangement.

Planning was done by the entire class. Special committees for decoration, food preparation, and serving consisted of: Nancy Reynolds, Mary Steed, Frances Teplin, Irma Tisdale, Kerstein Wahl, Dorothy Boren, Diane Branstetter, Nancy Carter, Susan Carver, Donna Fal-

Two JESD Aides At Conference In Los Angeles

Dr. Vinton Stratton, director of instruction, and Douglas Harkness, pupil personnel services coordinator, Jefferson Elementary school district, are in Los Angeles this week for the annual California School Supervisors Conference, November 12 to 15.

The school board has established a policy, effective next year, to send as many administrators as possible to the conference each year, believing the sessions of considerable value. Last year, only one principal made the trip.

Supt. H. Z. Weibel recommended a rotating scheme to determine conference delegates. He said at least four principals would be authorized to attend each year.

Mrs. Katherine Mullen, former board chairman and veteran trustee, urged that the policy be to send as many administrative personnel as possible, "but not necessarily a set number."

"This conference is extremely worthwhile—as the principals will verify. We may be criticized for the expenditure of sending a larger group, but I think the project is extremely beneficial to the district," she remarked.

Junior High Girl Caught Shoplifting At Westlake Store

A 15-year-old ninth grade girl from Aptos Jr. High was nabbed by Daly City police Saturday afternoon on a charge of attempting to shoplift a $17.95 plaid skirt from the Teen Shop, 321 South Mayfair, Westlake shopping center.

Mrs. Irving Scott, store owner, detained the girl outside the store until Officer Art Linhares arrived to investigate. The young culprit, according to Mrs. Scott, first tried on the skirt, hid it beneath two other skirts she had carried into the store, then left.

The girl's two companions fled the scene. Taken to the police station, the suspect broke away and jumped into a car, but she finally was forced to pull over at the corner of Rice and San Jose.

Police here learned that the teenager had been listed as a runaway from San Francisco since November 1. She is in custody of the Youth Guidance Center.

Veterans News

WHEN IN DOUBT—APPLY FOR BENEFITS:

Don't take anybody's word for it! If you have been told by someone that you don't qualify for veterans assistance of a certain type—apply anyway. Better to file a request and be turned down officially than never apply at all.

Too often the well meant casual advice of a friend or neighbor is given, without full knowledge of all the facts or all the law. Veterans and their dependents have found out years too late that they were entitled to federal or 'Cal-Vet' assistance for which they never applied because somebody said 'you're not eligible.'

Since each of us has a different 'case history' the fine points of the law frequently can and do determine eligibility for a veterans' or dependents' benefit.

Laws Change

Bear in mind too, that laws are always changing. For example, at the last session of Congress, at least two veterans' and survivors' benefits were opened up to persons formerly ineligible. Sometimes the very fact that a person's rejected application is on file gives him first consideration if the barrier to his claim is lifted. If you have to take no for an answer, get it in writing—not on somebody's say-so.

Applications for veterans' benefits may be filed at the Veterans' Service Office at the Courthouse, Redwood City. Also contact any Veterans' Organization Service Officer for assistance.

WESTLAKE-OLYMPIA

'Know Your Children' Urge Panelists At PTA Session

"Know your children and know what they are doing. Know your community and make it safe and interesting for your children."

These were the chief points of agreement stressed by a panel of experts concerned with juvenile delinquency at the Westlake-Olympia PTA meeting last Thursday, at Olympia school.

The Honorable A. T. Bray, Justice of the District Court of Appeals, San Francisco, headed the panel, aided by Judge Melvin Cronin, San Francisco Juvenile Court; John Davis, Chief Probation Officer of Contra Costa County; and John Cowgill, Chief Probation Officer of San Mateo County and member of the CCPT Advisory Board.

They discussed what parents and teachers can do to prevent juvenile delinquency before an enthusiastic attendance of about 200 PTA members. Questions from the audience were pertinent to the subject and where pointedly answered by the panel. Private discussions of the problems continued among the mothers throughout the social hour.

Said Mrs. Norman Cohn, Westlake-Olympia PTA president: "I was impressed with the fact that each member of the panel came back constantly to the matter of parents generally being much too lax with their children today and too involved with outside activities to be aware of what is going on underneath their own noses. This contributes in no small way to the matter of juvenile delinquency. A return to the family as a complete unit is the first step in combatting the problem."

Westlake Brownies, Troops 277, 278, Tour Peanut Plant

Westlake Brownie Troops 277 and 278 visited the Planters Peanut factory in San Francisco Monday for a tasty field trip.

Leader Mildred Weiden and co-leader Kal Fotenos accompanied the following Troop 277 girls: Susan Banchi, Susan Falconi, Christine Fotenos, Sunny Hersham, Stephanie Le Tourneau, Lauree Muller, Janet O'Neil, Robin Orr, Susan Periano, Phyllis Reeballes, Susan Stendahl, Barbara Weiden and Cheryl Witt.

Troop 278 young ladies making the trip with leader Betty Feeley and co-leader Bernice Luttringer, were: Terry Baciocci, Linda Cimino, Jeanette Cole, Bettyann Feeley, Angela Girando, Judy Luttringer, Peggy Mahoney, Patricia O'Donnell, Kathy Pavlos, Pamille Sanders and Mary Lou Wagaman. Mrs. Kay Baciocco went along with her daughter.

Church's recent Halloween party was the first showing of a 12-minute 16mm black and white film, entitled "The Church, the Child, the Congregation," in which the members of the church and their children were the star players.

The film was made as a special effort to acquaint every viewer with the full scope of the church's activities, from the youngest nursery age Sunday School pupil, to the adults attending the morning worship service.

Mr. Bernd Rausch, well-known in Bay Area photographic circles as the newsreel cameraman for TV station KP-IX, handled the camera, under the direction of church member Ken Gillespie.

Starting with a panoramic sweep of the Broadmoor-Westlake area, from up by Westmoor High school, the film follows a family from their front door down to the church. Arriving groups of Sunday School youngsters and teachers were depicted. The camera followed a class of Kindergarten age children into the new sanctuary to see the flowers at the altar for World-Wide Communion Day. Each Sunday School class, from Nursery through the Adult Bible Class, was visited, quite by surprise, and their activities filmed as they occurred. The reactions were completely spontaneous, and show exactly how the various age groups conduct their Sunday School classes.

A trip to the choir area, where the Junior Choir was in rehearsal gave a good idea of the music program for young people, under the direction of organist Delmar Severy.

The beginning of the morning service was shown, with people entering the sanctuary and the minister, the Rev. Herbert Tweedie, commencing his morning address.

A church member, Red Rush, is a well-known disc jockey and sports and news personality on radio station KYA. Gillespie called upon his talents to tape a commentary which was synchronized with the film, giving the viewers a little better insight as to what was happening as the action progressed.

A total of more than 250 adults and children attended the Halloween party, most of them seeing themselves, their parents or friends at one part of the film or another.

The film is available for local showing of clubs or groups, and any person interested in so using it may do so by calling Gillespie, PL 5-5123, or Rev. Tweedie, PL 6-2795.

In Paris... the most style-conscious fashion critics in the world had a deep, low bow for Ford's latest style creation. In the mighty Himalayas, Ford's new Interceptor V-8 engine with Precision Fuel Induction won the day!

Then there's nothing newer than the true air ride of Ford-Aire Suspension. It's like riding on a cloud! But, you don't have to go to foreign soil to drive this newest Ford. We'll gladly save you the trip. Come in today!

From London to Bangkok... the whole world loved it!

The 58 Ford stopped traffic in Trafalgar Square when it passed through on its round-the-world trip. And that was typical of the excitement this Ford caused in Paris... Rome... Athens... Istanbul... Calcutta... and Bangkok. For this Ford was proved around the world in the toughest "shakedown" cruise in history.

"THERE'S NOTHING NEWER IN THE WORLD OF STYLE!"

"THE WHOLE WORLD SEEMS SMALLER WITH FORD'S NEW INTERCEPTOR V-8 ENGINE!"

Jefferson Fights Burlingame 11 Here In Move For 2nd Place

By Roy Hurlbert

Jefferson's Indians, a team that frightened Capuchino but wasn't healthy enough to whip two mediocre practice foes, will be out for second place in the Peninsula League this Friday when they bounce Burlingame into town.

The arrivals, knocked out of the picture by Cap last week, 27-14, are the logical choice to hand the Tribe their third league setback.

Passer Paul Tapia's many catches figure to be back in action, so an Indian win is highly possible.

Jeff, let down after the Capuchino surprise, was expected to sorry last Friday when Riordan slapped Coach Joe McGrath's forces, 33-7.

One Man Joe

Tapia, his catchers out and line weaker than ever before, couldn't carry the load by his lonesome.

Missing from duty were fine senior guard Neil Dunford, end Pete Garcia, center-linebacker Jerry Kennedy, fullback Pat Lena and seabeck Sonny Martinez—first stringers all.

Additionally, McGrath had to improve the unimpeachable time as FB Herb Dirks and carrier John Margaroni were flattened early in the second half. Also, senior Dwayne Cook, seldom heralded guard, was put out with a broken hand. He's retired for the campaign.

and Kennedy, Martinez and Lena are ready to go.

The invaders are skipped by Greg Stikes, a fine running QB who mixes a few passes to keep any defense honest.

Burlingame, unbeaten until Cap applied the piers, had a 14-14 tie going with the league leaders in last week's battle. The Panthers are well balanced, and certainly have fewer casualties than McGrath's hustlers.

Starting for Jeff will be Gary Ryan and Garcia, all-league candidates, ends; junior John Dean and soph Bob Nielson, tackles; Dennis Bucher and Dunford, guards, and diehard Kennedy at center. Tapia and Lena's backfield mates will be Margaroni and Art Banos. Martinez and Wayne Lewis will be in out, depending on the circumstances. Sonny still favors a bad leg.

Game time is 2:45 o'clock.

'Tag 'n Tap' Battle For Peninsula Honors Finds Cap Ace Ahead

The "Tag and Tap" individual duel for Peninsula League football distinction moved along this week with Capuchino's Gene Tagliaferri leading Jefferson's ace, Paul Tapia.

Peninsula Sportswriters Association stats, assembled by methodical Jim Price, have Tagliaferri, leader of the unbeaten powerhouse, ahead in total offense and running away in the pointmaking department.

In five PL games, Tag has hauled the leather 114 times, cruising to 353 ground yards and bagging 787 yards on passes.

Tapia, playing in only three loop games, is close on Tag's heels for total offense with 1030 yards to the Cap lad's 1140. Tapia has 1066 aerial yards. On ground shots, Passing Paul has lost 36 yards.

Close Race

Tapia conceivably could overtake Tagliaferri for overall yardage, since the Daly City standout has two more tilts to accomplish the feat. Tap leads his mates against Burlingame this Friday here, then wraps up the campaign against rival South City.

Tag, brilliant as usual as the Mustangs downed Burlingame last week, 27-14, is top PL scorer with 73 points—9 touchdowns and 19 extra points.

Jeff's Pete Garcia ranks number two with 39 points, followed by Jerry Scattini (Cap), 36; Gary Ryan (Jeff's second all-league end candidate), 25; John Papini (Cap) and Bob Devincenzi (San Mateo), with 24 apiece.

Tapia is the PL leader in the TD tossing category with 15 all-the-way strikes. Tagliaferri is the best passer, percentage-wise, with a 61.4 percent accuracy rate. He has 35 for 57 and 7 TD's via the skies. Tapia is 53 for 106 against PL competition.

Tapia is Northern California's leading TD pitcher with 17 in five ball games. His only "average" days came against Serra and Riordan, two tough parochial eleven's who downed the Indians.

Most Aerials

Paul's most air attempts came Friday here when he lofted the leather 48 times, hitting the mark on 17 occasions. Jeff trails Capuchino in total team offense, 2188 yards to 1365.

Fisherman's Luck?

Ed Rondo, 48 Park Manor drive, Sunday told police that $200 worth of fishing equipment and a spare tire were stolen from the trunk of his car last weekend during an outing at Pescadero down the Coast.

Colma 7th Graders Conclude Campaign With 2 Victories

Colma Intermediate's pep-ped-up seventh grade touch footballers raced to two wins last week, downing Ben Franklin, 20-6, and South San Francisco, 14-7, in games Wednesday and Friday at Trojan Field.

Against Franklin, Mike DeBernardi tossed two TD passes (to Don Hermosillo and Mario Mora) and Bob Rasmussen twirled a third to Wayne Stoller. Frank Gallegos, game standout, got Colma a safety by tackling the Franklin QB behind the goal in the third period.

QB Spencer Bader passed to left end Barney Colangelo for 60 yards and the Franklin tally. Tony Thomas and Steve Gratch played well for the losers.

De Bernardi's 45-yard end run and Dan Hermosillo's 20-yard aerial to Floyd Byrum accounted for the TD's against South City. Another safety came in that one as Jim Rezendes made a behind-the-line tackle for the winners.

The twin victories ended the Colma campaign. Their season record was 5-2-1.

Hillsdale is the defensive kingpin, allowing a total of only 694 yards to opponents in four ball games.

SM's Devincenzi is the best per-carry totter. He's averaging 7.1 yards a crack. Tag is next with a 6.2 hauling rate. The many-times injured Sonny Martinez, Jeff's fastest carrier, has shot 11.2 yards a carry. He has seen only limited duty due to combat hurts.

Rams Entertain Knights Friday; Lose Fifth, 20-7

Westmoor's Rams, suffering a 20-7 loss to South City last week, entertain Hillsdale (2-2) this Friday at 2:45 o'clock in the first varsity Peninsula League football game ever played at Westmoor.

Pete Matisi's Daly City squad played what he termed "our best team game of the season" though falling to the Warriors last Friday evening.

Westmoor is last in the PL with an 0-5 mark. For the season, the Rams are 1-5, their win a 6-0 practice nod over Willow Glen of San Jose.

Hillsdale upset San Mateo last week, 7-0.

23 COPS FIRE IN DEPARTMENT TURKEY SHOOT

Twenty-three members of Daly City's police department zeroed in Tuesday for their annual Turkey Shoot at the Otoboni range in Colma.

Winning money to buy turkeys were deadeys Steve Steen, James Bergstrom, August Benassini and Bruno Conci. Art Linhares, forgetting golf for a few moments, was accurate enough to win the fifth prize, a bottle of tonic.

Each gendarme was allowed three shots at the special targets.

Range officer Jim Welsh coordinated the affair. It was held in conjunction with the department's regular monthly training session at the range.

Van Nest Tells Thanksgiving Park Schedule

Thanksgiving week playground schedule today was announced by Dee Van Nest, parks and recreation department.

Following city and school facilities will be open, under supervision, from 3:30 to 5 p.m., Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and Friday and Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., weather permitting:

City—War Memorial building, Marchbanks park, Westlake park, Lincoln and Frankfort playgrounds.

Schools—Ben Franklin, Colma, Jefferson Elementary, Crocker, Westlake and Olympia.

All sites will be closed Thanksgiving Day, November 28, a Thursday.

WESTMOOR FIVES DROP TWO GAMES TO CAP SQUADS

Westmoor's C and D eagers lost a close doubleheader to Capuchino Tuesday in the PL finale for the Rams on their own court.

Tony Giammona's 20's, playing their best, took the heavily favored invaders into overtime before losing, 18-17. It was 13-all at the end of regular time.

The Ram 10's lost, 31-24, despite Ed Walther's 10 points.

Last Thursday, Westmoor took a pair from Hillsdale, 37-20 in the 10's and 26-24 in the 20's. Dan O'Connor, 12 points, and Bill Reynolds, 8, were high for the DC squad.

WESTMOOR High's varsity cross country team is the 1957 Peninsula League champion. The Ram runners went unbeaten in dual meet competition, then last week won the PL team title by outlasting runnerup Jefferson. The two Daly City schools finished 1-2 in cross country ratings this season. The Ram champs, left to right, back row: Coach Ernie Ribera, Jerry Serhen, Don Polanda, Robert Noll, Bill Sheary, Jed Cyr, Rick Schweitzer. Middle row: Gordon Kyamme, Michael Joseph, Carmine Loreina, John Reuther. Front: Lane Buccelli, Dave Dunbar, John Blake, Phil DeLaFuente, Ed Dowdall, Bruce Ryner.

Verducci's Mob, Unbeaten Chico Clash For Title

Mayor-coach Joe Verducci takes his SF State gridders into the Chico State pit this Saturday night for the Far West Conference championship decider.

Both teams are 4-0 in FWC standings. Verdooch's huskies smothered Sacto State last week, while unbeaten Chico numbed the Cal Aggies, 28-7.

For the season, the mayor's team is 6-2. Chico is undefeated in seven games.

QB Jim Sochor and fierce guard Floyd Peters, East-West game candidate, lead the Gators in the nerve-buster. Sochor, just a sophomore, has tossed 14 TD passes in eight games this fall, putting his name in the school record books.

A Washington High product, slim Jim is pitching at a 59.4 percent clip, with 62 hits and 44 misses.

QB Sochor's targets are his older brother, John (HB), ends Monte Hess and Wayne Taylor, and HB Sandy Malnick.

SF State, with Verducci the mastermind, shared the FWC crown with two other teams last year.

The Gators are odds-even to hog the thing this time.

Jeff Lightweights Boast 8-3 Marks Entering Finale

Dumping Hillsdale in two tilts Tuesday, Jefferson's lightweight cage fives entered this Thursday's final at South City with identical 8-3 Peninsula League records.

Mike Orlich's 10's lost out in the title race last week, dropping a 44-34 battle to title-cinching San Mateo. The winners finished as champs with an 11-1 record.

Orlich's 20's nudged San Mateo, 26-21, with Tony DiVirgilio top gun with 10 points.

The Indian 10's raced past Hillsdale, 31-19, this week, while the 20's won with ease, 48-29.

Cap and San Mateo are both 9-2 in their duel for the 20's title.

Really 'Cool' Bowler Nabs Loop Spotlight

Eager Ernie Cool of second division Vince & Fred's Spunkies prevailed 2-1 over 101 Club, Tuesday night as he shattered pins all over the place at Brentwood Bowl.

Ernie was real cool as he topped the league's 79 other rollers with a second game 259 and a whopping 694 series, the latter a season high for the DC-Colma circuit.

Cool's outburst helped his mates to a split over lowly Edisco.

Rams Grab Crown In X-Country

Jeff's Al Davila won the race, but Westmoor's dual meet champions wrapped up the Peninsula League varsity cross country title last week by nudging their hometown rivals.

Ernie Ribera's Rams took the thing with a low of 55 points, Jeff was second with 60, and Burlingame third with 63.

Davila's winning time was 10:42. John Blake, Westmoor, came next, and Jeff's Mike Ribera and Don Snyder were fourth and fifth, respectively. Ram Phil DeLaFuente took ninth.

Westmoor also won the JV crown in the showdown on the Stanford course, then finished fourth in the frosh-soph competition.

The Ram and Indian harriers go this Friday in the North Coast trials, also at Stanford.

Ben Franklin Kids Keep Football Lead With 7-6 Triumph

Ben Franklin took undisputed leadership in the Sixth Grade touch-football league Saturday by outlasting tough Westlake park, 7-6.

Ron Johnson passed to John Bennett, a 60-yard maneuver, for Franklin's tally in the second quarter. Bruce Hix got the crucial extra point on a toss to Johnson.

Westlake got its score in the same period via a Jim Fotenos aerial to Bill Malingier.

Knee Surgery Is Key To Jeff QB's Future

Paul Tapia, Jefferson High's tireless passer and Northern California's leading TD tosser (17 in 5 games this season), will undergo knee surgery immediately after the Peninsula League campaign ends.

Recipient of many university offers for his sensational air work, Tapia told THE RECORD: "I'm undecided right now as to where I'll go to college. Of course, everything depends on my knee. If the surgery brings it up to par, my chances for a football scholarship at the bigger schools are better."

The Jeff QB has bad ligaments in his knee, first damaged years ago in a grammar school baseball game. But it was not serious enough to keep him from all-out efforts for Jeff's baseball and football teams the past three years.

Tapia was put on crutches early this season after a tough scrimmage with Washington of San Francisco. Paul was purposely sidelined for the San Mateo opener, although he was pronounced "able to play" by the team physician.

McGrath loudly objects to recent suggestions in another Peninsula newspaper that the Jeff coaching staff was risking Tapia's physical fitness by allowing him to play with a sub-par knee.

"I'm sure the reporter who hinted these things wasn't too aware of the facts. We have a medical OK on Paul and he certainly doesn't have to play if he is afraid of ruining his future. We coaches don't sacrifice students to win ball games or to establish passing records," said McGrath.

GROCCERS STILL LEAD BRISBANE

Bell's Corner Grocers held onto first place, but the list of contenders to the throne were shuffled a bit this week as three shutouts were racked up in the unpredictable Brisbane Handicap League.

Brisbane Inn and the Lions moved to a tie for second spot, while the firemen and Chuck's gas and oil brigade shared the next rung with 14-13 marks.
